13 COOKIES

The website makes use of “cookies” to automatically collect information and data through the standard operation of the Internet servers. “Cookies” are small text files a website can use (and which we may use) to recognise repeat users, facilitate the user’s on-going access to and use of a website and allow a website to track usage behaviour and compile aggregate data that will allow the website operator to improve the functionality of the website and its content, and to display more focused advertising to a user by way of third party tools. The type of information collected by cookies is not used to personally identify you. If you do not want information collected through the use of cookies, there is a simple procedure in most browsers that allows you to deny or accept the cookie feature. Please note that cookies may be necessary to provide you with certain features available on our website, and thus if you disable the cookies on your browser you may not be able to use those features, and your access to our Website will therefore be limited.

14 YOUR RIGHTS AS A DATA SUBJECT

- 14.1 As a data subject, you have a number of data privacy rights. These rights include the right to request from Automx access to, correction or deletion of your personal data or restriction of processing concerning your data or to object to the processing of your personal information. For further information on how to exercise these rights, please refer to our procedure for data subject access to, objection to, correction or deletion of personal information processed by Automx as set out in the PAIA/POPIA Manual

- 14.2 All the rights of a data subject are contained in POPIA. The information on these rights can be found at the Information Regulator’s website at <https://www.justice.gov.za/inforeg/>, to whom you have the right to make a complaint, if we do not resolve your concern.
